

Students of the Month

January 2017

Grade 6

Grace Malone

The 6th grade team is proud to announce Grace Malone as January's Student of the Month. Grace is an outstanding student who works very hard to create high-quality work. She is a kind friend to others and is respectful to her teachers. Her sense of humor and personality are a delight to have in the classroom. Grace has made tremendous strides this year and we expect to see many more good things to come from her!

Grade 7

April Jacobs

The 7th grade teachers overwhelmingly select April Jacobs as January's Student of the Month. So many adjectives describe April: helpful, responsible, hard-working, highly motivated and self-directed. Her great attitude enables her to consistently produce excellent work. Congratulations, April!

Grade 8

Andrew Penn

The 8th grade is honored to select Andrew Penn as the 8th grade Student of the Month. Andrew is a hard-working, respectful and conscientious student. He constantly adds to class discussions and always has his work completed. Always respectful to everyone in the classroom, Andrew is focused and strives for excellence in everything he does. He is also a terrific art student and exhibits all the qualities of Wildcat Pride. Congratulations, Andrew, for being your very best every day!
