Jason Chevrier presented on the first full year with SRO Richard Eckel. He thanked SRO Eckel for his professionalism, collaboration with Faculty and Staff, relationships made with student and his input on safety in the buildings. SRO Eckel shared a typical day, different connections he made and some of the training he participated in this year. Chief of Police, Ralph Southworth was present and spoke in support of the SRO program.

8. PUBLIC COMMENT

Sarah Lant – Teacher at Castleton Elementary School Officer Eckel is a great addition, visits her classroom often and sits with students.

9. DISTRICT / BUILDING UPDATES / STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE UPDATE

- A. District Updates

- BOE Summer Retreat - June 30 in Jr/Sr High School Library
- BOE Committee Interest Form – After meeting with Dr. Boles, Jason will circulate the google sheet with committees.
- End of Year Activities – There is a lot going in district, concerts, field days, and graduation is coming up, weather is being watched.
- NYSSBA Annual Conference Registration – Registration takes place in August, we need to know who is interested prior to the registration date.
- Shout out to three seniors that earned their civic seal Henry Hickok, Fiona Gokey and Leah McIntosh.
- Enrollment Report attached for review

B. Building Updates

- Castleton Elementary School – Events are plentiful, two concerts took place on the lawn (5th and 6th grade), Flag Day took place last week. Classroom presentations, 3rd Grade World Fair, always a good event where student represent different countries and share information and snacks from their country.
- Maple Hill Jr/Sr High School – Really busy month, it is nice to recognize students, scholarships for Juniors and Seniors, concerts took place, Mrs. Gibney was missed. Thanked Olivia, the Student Representation graduation plans and back up plans are under way, 8th grade moving up and dance is coming up.

C. Student Representative Update

Seniors had trip to NJ, Sunrise on the Tack walkthroughs at both schools Senior Picnic, shout out for Miss April (Petuske) she did a lot for the class. She recognized Softball for making it to semifinals in sectionals, track going to states and thanked Mr. S and the board for the opportunity.
